Good Times Spent

At St. Ann's Picnic

The St. Jean Baptiste picnic which was postponed on account of the wet weather which prevailed on St. Jean Baptiste Day, was celebrated on St. Ann's Day, Wednesday, July 21st in the grounds of The Sacred Heart church. Letters To The Editor In The Matter

Of Pic-Nics

July 29th 1920

The Editor, The Chauvin Chronicle.

Dear Sir: We have had a number of Pic-Nics here recently, which followed each other so quickly that it was very difficult for farmers to be present at them all. Consequently the Pic-Nics have not been the general success they would have been if spread over a longer time.

As a public gathering like a picnic offers an opportunity for bringing all the people in the district together, fostering the community spirit, and the greater success of the picnic the more benefit to the district.

Consequently I would suggest that the Town of the Municipality and the Mayor of Chauvin arrange a meeting of the representatives of the organizations holding the pic-nics so that dates can be more satisfactory in the future than this year, and it is most desirable that these should be on public holidays. We have—May 24th Empire Day, June 3rd Kings Birthday, July 1st Dominion Day, and the first Monday in September Labor Day.

The latter appears to me the most suitable for a gathering of the United Farmers.

The date for our most important meeting, the Agricultural Fair is arranged by the Fair's Association but is held in the early part of August and does not conflict with other dates.

In conclusion I am afraid we do not fully appreciate the splendid self-sacrificing work done by these ladies whose untiring devotion to the duties they impose on themselves, in looking after our creature comforts, and which contribute so much towards a successful pic-nic.

Yours truly

WM. RODDEN.

After some discussion it was moved by Councillor Stewart and carried that a committee of three be formed to examine the road east of sections one and twelve in township 46-26, the committee to consist of Councillors Mitchell, Belmont and Williams.

Mr. J. Casey, weed inspector, attended to request that the remuneration of weed inspectors be increased in account of the fact that in order to efficiently carry out the work required of them, it was necessary to employ a team, the present rate of pay, $1.50 per day, not being considered sufficient in view of the high cost of feed, etc., and after a short discussion it was decided to increase the pay of weed inspectors to $6.50 per day or 75 cents per hour.

Bishop Bullard gave a stirring sermon at the Friday evening meeting. Saturday morning and afternoon were devoted to the discussion of the affairs of the church, dealing with the question not only from the local viewpoint, but in its wider provincial and universal sphere.

Industrial propositions were dealt with in a discourse by Bishop McGuire in the evening.

Peace Celebration Monday July 19th

"A great time" Such was the verdict of those present at the Peace Celebration Sports, staged by members of the Chauvin G. W. V. A. and the Ladies Auxillary of that organization.

So great was the variation from the usual sports program, that baseball, football and horseracing were thoroughly eclipsed. It being evident to the most casual observer that the folk were far more interested in such events as the parade and march to the grounds; wrestling and tug-of-war on horseback; mounted potato race; tilting the bucket, etc.

The Chauvin G.W.V.A. paraded at the Memorial Hall at one-thirty in the afternoon. At two o'clock the march to the grounds was started, led by a color party with arms, followed by bearers with the Roll of Honour, led by the national colors, and supported by a full muster, under the command of Capt. J. F. Perch, D.S.O., M.C. The route was via Main St and Second Ave to the grounds, moving in close column order. On the arrival they split into three parties forming a quadrangle in front of the Roll of Honour; these movements being carried out with true military precision. The Roll of Honor was then unveiled by Major H. V. Strachan, U.N.C., M.C. The first item of the sports program—the wrestling on horse back was a keenly contested event.

The veterans being—Constable Holbaum, A. Tusey, C. Smith and M. Penrose. The civilians: Bert Johnson, Budge Reinhart, Joe Reinhart and L. Smith. The task before these men, who were riding bare back was to wrestle until all their opponents were unhorsed, catch or catched, men, members of each team to assist one another or when at liberty. It was difficult for any spectator to watch the whole every detail of the contest. The contest was extremely keen and some splendid horsemanship was displayed.

The outstanding feature that came to the fore in the contest was the writer was the fine exhibition given by L. Smith, who was well mounted and gave good battle against C. Smith and A. Tusey for a long spell, finally getting them both down. Joe Reinhart, civilian, also brought down two men, riding to the finish and bringing victory to the civilians. For the veterans, Con. Holbaum, C. Smith and M. Penrose each brought down a man.

Half-mile race, won by Ed. Keatley.

REGULATIONS FOR SHIPPING LIVE STOCK

Section 1.

The shipment of stock in this association may be made regardless of membership and the delivery of stock to the manager and the acceptance thereof by him binds the shipper to the rules and by-laws of this association. All who desire to ship stock with the association shall report to the manager the kind of stock, the number of each kind, the approximate weight or each, and when it will be ready to ship. When a sufficient amount of stock has been reported ready for shipment to make one or more full carloads the manager shall order a car and shall notify each party having stock listed when the stock is to be delivered for loading.

Section 2.

The duties of the shipper. The shipper shall be at the yard on the day the shipment is to be made, unless he shall have secured a competent substitute and shall receive all stock and weigh, mark and load the same. He shall accompany shipments to destination and look after same till sold and weighed. He shall furnish a statement to every shipper, showing net weight, price received and expenses of shipment. He shall keep on file in a book kept for that purpose all statements received from the commission firm selling the stock for the association. He shall also keep a record showing the number of cars shipped and the amount of stock in each car. He shall also keep an account of all receipts and disbursements for the association. At the annual meeting he shall furnish a detailed statement of all business done during the year.

The shipper shall receive as compensation for his services the amount of ten cents (10c.) per hundred pounds and no other compensation except that he shall have the right to charge for feed, bedding or materials needed in making the partitions to separate the stock, or any other necessary expense, said amount to be charged against the shipment for which it is incurred.

The secretary-treasurer shall furnish a satisfactory bond, which shall be approved by the board of directors. Said bond shall be for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Section 3.

There shall be deducted on every hundred pounds of stock one quarter of one per cent and the same shall be placed in the sinking fund, to be used for the paying of any adjustments, or losses that may occur on any stock from the time it comes into the hands of the shipper until final disposition is made.

Any shipper whose stock has been damaged while in the hands of the shipper, shall receive the full amount for the same as though the stock had not been injured, but shall be subject to the same ratio of expense on the shipment. The payment of damage shall be based on a statement made by the commission firm selling the shipment, which statements shall show the amount received for the injured animal and the amount, in their opinion, it would have brought had it not been injured. This statement shall be the final basis of settlement. No damage shall be paid for any animal which was not in a healthy condition when received at the local yards by the shipper.

Section 4.

The board of directors may in their discretion invest surplus funds remaining in the said sinking fund or the funds accumulated through payment of assessments in the purchase of weigh scales or stock yards or improvements to an existing yard or scales.

Section 5.

All stock which must be sold subject to inspection, except such as been injured while in a healthy condition and in charge of the shipper, and all diseased animals shall be received at the owner's risk, and he shall receive such payment therefor as is received by the commission firm less all expense figured pro ratio on the shipment.

Section 6.

The shipper shall appoint as many substitutes as he may need for the different shipping parties to act as his assistants. The shipper shall be responsible for all the work his substitutes do for him, in behalf of the association. The directors shall have the right to order the shipper of the association to change his substitutes at any time they see fit to do so.

Section 7.

Shipments shall be received by said association from non-members of the association, with the understanding that such shippers are to pay two cents extra per hundred pounds in section fund, which is to be divided among members of the association at the annual meeting, or used to purchase stock scales or pay for improvements of local owned stockyards. Any member shipping outside the association without a permit from the association will lose all rights in said association until he renews his membership in the association.

Section 8.

Should any member agree to ship his live stock and list the same with the association and thereafter fail to deliver it for shipment, and should such failure of such member to ship as agreed cause a loss to the association through the association being obliged to pay the minimum freight on a car notwithstanding the car is not loaded to the minimum, then and that event such member shall be liable for the excess sum so paid as freight by the association, and the association agrees to accept the payment of such sum as liquidated damages for such breach of contract.

Section 9.

Any dispute over the sale of any live stock between the commission firm and the association, or one of the members of the association, must be settled by the association for its members, the association to act in the capacity of the shipper's agent.

THE RAISING OF SHEEP.

In introducing the estimates for his department to the house of commons the Hon. Dr. Toimie, Dominion minister of agriculture pointed to the fact that in Australia there are no fewer than 80,000,000 sheep, in the United States 40,000,000, in Great Britain 27,000,000, and in Canada only 3,500,000. As shown in The Agricultural Gazette of Canada for May efforts are being made in all the provinces to remedy this state of things. That is to say encouragement is being given to the raising of sheep in a variety of ways—by pure-bred rams being distributed or sold on easy terms by the holding of competitions at which generous prizes are given for the best ewes and for the best flocks by obtaining the highest price for wool through the departments and through the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Association, by organized sheep sales and as in Ontario in particular, by placing flocks on a share basis. Amended legislation has also been passed for the protection of sheep from dogs. As a sample of the good work that is being performed it might be mentioned that in Saskatchewan in the last four years the amount of wool consigned to the co-operative branch of the provincial department of agriculture increased from 179 consignments, weighing 53,484 pounds, for which the average price realized was 173-4 cents to 916 consignments weighing 394,065 pounds, at an average price of 61-2 cents per pound. The articles in The Gazette would imply that what has been done in Saskatchewan is also being accomplished in the other provinces of the Dominion.

HOW TO CHECK CUT WORMS IN HOME GARDENS

The more succulent vegetables if the vegetable garden rarely escape the attacks of the dreaded cutworms, therefore stringent and intelligent methods of control must be exercised. Usually the cutworms (caterpillars) work at night, and the kinds usually found in vegetable gardens eat through the stems of plants near the ground or just below the surface, and do great and at times almost incalculable damage. The greatest injury is caused to seedlings in May and June and to plants which may be set out at this time.

As cutworms are voracious feeders it is an easy matter to poison them by simply placing poisoned substances along the rows. This is better than to spray the plants, as it is difficult to reach the points attacked, and so the material and labor would be wasted. Bran, rolled oats, middlings and similar substances will attract the cutworms, and if a little molasses and Paris green or powdered arsenate of lead are mixed with these, and the mixture is placed near the plants in the evening a large number of caterpillars will be killed, if they are at all numerous on the plot. When poultry or domestic animals are allowed to stray, the poison should be covered or be removed early each morning.

The constant use of the hoe or rake among the plants will tend to expose many cutworms, and if the weeds are kept down, and the plot maintained in a clean condition, the attack is not likely to be serious.

TO KILL THE WILD MILLET OR FOXTAIL

The name wild millet is frequently given to plants that are known also as 'green foxtail' and yellow foxtail. It is a very persistent weed which seeds profusely from harvest to late autumn. The plant is usually from one to four feet tall, though when started late and pressed for time, foxtail matures seed when no more than three inches high. It prefers a somewhat loose, warm, sandy soil, but is sometimes found even in clay loam. This weed seldom gives much trouble in a heavy rank crop, but is grows freely in a drought. A badly neglected crop of corn or field roots is favorable to its growth.

The most suitable method for the eradication of foxtail or wild millet is to double disc or skim plow the stubble as soon as possible after harvest, thus preventing the late blossoming plants from seeding. The following summer the weeds must be allowed to grow until a few inches high, then destroyed by shallow plowing or by the use of wide toothed cultivator. All through the summer the weed seeds should be encouraged to grow as often as possible, then destroyed by the wide toothed cultivator when only a few inches high. Great care must be taken that none of the weeds ripen during the summer. This green summer fallowing will destroy not only the weeds that may grow on the land.

A board of not less than three nor more than five persons, to be called the Assessment Equalization Board, appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, shall determine the total equalized assessed value of all rateable lands of each and every municipal unit in the Province. The Board shall make its first report to the Minister of Municipal Affairs not later than the 10th day of January, 1921, and the said report shall contain a schedule showing the total equalized assessed value for the purposes of this Act of every municipal unit in the Province. A subsequent report shall be made by the Board on or before the 10th day of January, 1926, and every fifth year thereafter.

On receipt of the report of the Board, the Minister will advise the secretary of each municipal unit of the amount of the equalized assessment of each municipality, and the said amount if confirmed by the Board, shall be the local assessed value of said municipality for the current year and for each year thereafter until the next equalized assessment is reported by the Board; provided that where there is an increased local assessment in any year inasmuch as caused by more land coming under the assessed value of such land as fixed by the assessor shall, until the next equalized assessment by the Board, be added to the total equalized assessment of such unit as last fixed by the Board; and shall be taxed at said rate; provided always that where the total assessment of any city, town or village as fixed by the assessment officer exceeds the total equalized assessment as fixed by the Board to such an extent as in the opinion of the Council to make the acceptance of such equalized assessment impracticable for municipal purposes the assessor or secretary-treasurer or other tax-collecting officer as the case may be shall strike a rate of taxation on the amount of assessment as fixed by him that shall yield under this Act at the rate of two mills on the dollar upon the total equalized assessment as fixed by the Board.

Lands forfeited to the Crown under The Educational Tax Act, and The Wild Lands Tax Act, shall, until re-sold be exempted from taxes under this Act.

9.—AN ACT TO AMEND THE MUNICIPAL LAND INSURANCE ACT.

The Act shall not apply to land that has been subdivided into blocks and lots and plans registered. The question as to whether a municipal district shall be brought under the Act shall be decided by a majority of the electors actually voting. Power is given to a district not in a half insurance district to levy and collect the rates for insurance from owners and occupants whose applications for insurance have been accepted by the board.

In making a crop report return, instead of having the indemnity $5.00 per acre, subject on request to reduce to $5.00, the owner or occupant is now required to state the amount of insurance per acre he desires, and Section 29, fixing the indemnity, has been repealed and the following substituted:

"The maximum indemnity to be paid for total loss shall be six, eight or ten dollars per acre, as shown on the return made under Section 24 clause (d) of this Act; provided, however, that if no such return has been made until after the insured crop has been damaged by hail, the maximum indemnity for total loss shall be six dollars per acre."

"(3) No Liability as to indemnity shall exist—"

"(a) With references to any portion of an insured acreage in which the damage done by hail in such portion is less than 5 per cent of the actual value of the crop in such portion."

"(b) Where the damage by hail has taken place after the crop has been cut."

"(3) The indemnity herein provided for shall be exempt from garnishment attachment and execution."

11.—AN ACT TO AMEND THE WILD LANDS TAX ACT.

Ballast pits, lands used exclusively for mining purposes, and lands forfeited to the Province, until sold, are exempt from taxes under this Act.

Notice of adjudication may be sent out instead of a copy as formerly, and the provisions requiring the Minister, after the expiration of ten months and before the expiration of eleven months from the date of adjudication, to publish in the Gazette and in a newspaper a notice by registered mail to each person who appears by the records of the Land Titles Office to have any interest in the land has been repealed.

The Minister is given power to sell forfeited lands by public auction, much the same as school lands are sold.

WHEN BARKER BARKED

Sergeant Barker was in a bad temper and the recruits under instruction were having a hard time of it. The squad had to "bout turn" so many times in a few seconds that it was no wonder the poor fellow got dizzy, and Smudger Smug was used by turning about the wrong way.

Sergeant Barker got in a towering rage, and, striding up to Smudger roared:

"Where the dickens do you think you are? On parade or what?"

"Well, sergeant," replied Smudger, meekly, "I began to think I was at a fancy dress ball dressed up as a bloomin' leg o' mutton and twisting round and round on a meat cake."

A man who owned a tortoise allowed it to crawl about his kitchen. Then one day he changed his servant.

Not having seen the tortoise about for a few days, the man began to make enquiries of the maid, who said that she had never seen it. Taking a candle she searched everywhere, and at last looked in the coal-cellar, where she found the tortoise.

The astonished girl looked at the creature and cried.

"Is that what you call a tortoise? 'Why I've been breaking coals on it for nearly a fortnight!'"

Young Arthur, the pride of the family, had been attending school all of six weeks, and his devoted parent thought it was high time he should find out how things were running. So he asked one afternoon.

"And what did my little son learn about this morning?"

"Oh, a mouse. Miss Wilcox told us all about mouses."

"That's the boy! Now, how do you spell mouse?"

It was then that Arthur gave promise of being an artful dodger. He paused meditatively for a moment, then said,

"Father, I guess I was wrong. It wasn't a mouse, teacher was telling us about. It was a rat."

Manitou Lake Council Meeting

Instructed to write Mr. Graham stating that the account would be settled after the survey of the road had been completed. An account for $20.00 for filling in the approaches to a culvert with manure, etc., was finally passed at $10.00. Councillor Mitchell reported that he had seen the road allowance between sections 25 and 23-45-27-3 proposed to be fenced in by E. J. Natress and it was resolved that this application be granted.

It was resolved to apply for a survey of a road diversion on the north half of 16-45-27-3.

H. D. Swarbrick, the secretary, having tendered his resignation as from August 22nd, steps were taken towards the appointment of a new secretary-treasurer, and the date of the next meeting of the council was set for Friday, July 30th, in order that any applications received might be considered and the position filled before the above mentioned date.

Re compensation for roadway taken from the S.E. of 26-46-25-3 it was resolved to award compensation at the rate of $10.00 per acre, the figure asked by the Hudson's Bay company, owner of the quarter section. Re compensation for roadway taken from the east half of 23-46-25-3, the secretary was instructed to write the owners stating that the council considered the price asked, viz.: $50.00 per acre, as preposterous, as the proposed road actually increased the value of the land and at the present time part of this land was of no value on account of lack of road.

The reply of the department of municipal affairs re the taxation of stores and bank buildings not within the limits of a village or hamlet being satisfactory, the assessment was instructed to assess the owners of such buildings at 60 per cent. of the valuation of same.

Re south half of section 7-47-24-3 the secretary having ascertained that this half section was the property of the C.P.R., it was resolved that the assessment on same be at the rate of $10.00 per acre.

With reference to the purchase of barb wire for the use of poundkeepers it was resolved to purchase 13 rolls if this wire to be supplied to those poundkeepers requiring same, on the condition, decided at last council meeting, Mr. S. K. Carter, Arltand, having written asking whether the council considered a lake to be a legal fence, the secretary was instructed to reply stating that the council considered the lake in question to be a satisfactory boundary.

The question of the best method of dealing with the road through the sandhills to Arltand came up for discussion and it was resolved that Councillor G. A. Lawson be allowed to spend up to $300.00 on the improvement of this road.

Re Yonker road, it was resolved that the sum of $20.00 be forwarded to the secretary of the Hillsdale municipality towards the cost of the upkeep of the Yonker road. Councillor Williams pointing out that a considerable number of residents in Manitou Lake R.M. were in the habit of using this road.

Mr. W. E. Graham, a taxpayer in division 5 attended with reference to the cutting of the wire fence around section 23-45-27-3 leased by himself and stated that he was willing to put in gates for the convenience of the public on condition that the council would be responsible for any loss or damage caused through persons leaving said gates open and stock escaping; We would also require a yearly rental of $30.00 for the use of this road. This question was immediately put to the meeting with the result that the motion to pay a rental of $30.00 was defeated. Council considered that sum excessive. Mr. Graham thereupon intimated that unless the council agreed to pay compensation for the use of this road at the sum named and would assume responsibility for any loss he was put through stock escaping from the pasture, he would consider any persons using the road as trespassers and take action accordingly, as he had moved his fence back on the north of the section so as to allow of a passable road. The council being of the opinion that the road allowance was not passable at the present time, decided to maintain a temporary road through this section until such time as the roadway could be made passable, and it was resolved on the motion of Councillor J. W. Coe, to write the council's legal advisers, instructing them in the event of Mr. Graham closing up this temporary road, to commence action against

Mr. Graham for obstructing the roadway as authorized by council, all attempts at coming to an agreement on this matter having failed.

In connection with the improvement of the road between townships 44 and 45 westward from the municipal hall to the 4th meridian it was resolved that the coe and Councillors Mitchell and Coe constitute a committee to go over the road and report on the work required.

The meeting closed with the passing of a number of accounts for payment.

Our Weekly Sermon

NOT ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL

Rom. 1:16, I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. The church in Rome was flustered by some one a few years before Paul wrote this letter. Paul longed to visit this congregation that he might establish it, and impart unto it some spiritual gift. Again and again he was hindered; so he wrote a letter instead. He knew that Rome was a strategic point to have a strong congregation in. The key of the epistle is, The Gospel of Christ is the power of God to all believers.

First, what is the Gospel? Paul tells us in I Cor. 15 what he understands by the Gospel. He gives us the facts of the death and resurrection of Christ. The Gospel is not a declaration of principles; nor is it a code of laws, but a record of facts. A fact is of no significance without the explanation of it. What makes the fact of Christ's death a Gospel, is that He is the Son of God, and died to save us from sin. We cannot understand the death of Jesus unless the atoning nature of His sacrifice is admitted.

All the New Testament writers agree with this view. The Gospel becomes the presence of Christ in the soul. It is God's free gift of salvation. All other messages to men say "Do this and live." The universal here is that men can earn their salvation, pay for it, or do something

Paul might have been ashamed of the Gospel, just as some are to-day. It was so insignificant. A Roman would scorn to notice it. It was only an offshoot of a detested religion. Paul knew it would be unpopular, for it taught many things the world would not accept. The cross was an offence to Romans and foolishness to the Greeks. The followers of Jesus were regarded as heretics by the Jews.

Paul was not ashamed of the Gospel because it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believes. Invaluable as heat, electricity, or gravitation, it does its work in the hearts and consciences of men. A Japanese student said, "I accept Christianity because it is a religion of power. The more I studied Confucius and Buddha the less peace I had because I had no power to carry out their teaching. In Christ I find power to save men from sin."

The first element in the Gospel is the love of God, the second is the righteousness of God, which He bestows on every one who believes on His Son. We cannot earn or pay for salvation; we accept it. The gospel saves from the bondage of sin.

The gospel requires only one condition for the exertion of its power—it must be believed. The sinner believed the words of Paul, and was saved. It is a broad and a narrow gospel. It is broad for it is for every one who believes; so all the world might be included. But it is narrow also—it is only to those who believe. It is the power of God, but it cannot save apart from our moral consciousness, our repentance, our consent.

a hole as he rode by, at the risk of upsetting a pail of water upon themselves. A number of entries were made and much water spilt, though to the disappointment if the spectators the contestants were successful in dodging the deluge, and finally the prize fell to Keatley and Gibbs. Dundas and Fahner, and Devignon and Page also doing good work.

The wild boar hunt for boys and girls under 14 consisted of the capture of a well greased pig which was liberated on the baseball diamond. The pig put up a good run and left much of his grease with his ardent pursuers. Johnnie Cargill ultimately becoming owner of the pig.

A goodly number of entries were made in the trap shooting contest. G. W. Allan winning the 1st prize Jeff Ewan the second.

It was late before the baseball got started. The first game being Airfile vs. Chauvin. This was Airfile's game until the close of the fourth innings after which Chauvin had the game in hand. Airfile however was creeping up the score towards the end but remained two short of the essential to victory. The score being:—

Chauvin . . . 30 3 0 4 6 2—18

Airfile . . . 6 0 1 1 0 6 3—17

Veterans vs Chauvin was the next game, but as it was nearing sunset when the game commenced it became necessary to call the game at the end of the fourth innings, which was played in the fading twilight. While the light remained remained the two teams tied on each innings. The score being

Veerans . . . 0 12 2—5

Chauvin . . . 0 12 10—13

The members of the G.W.V.A. served at the booth, where in addition to the regular line of ice creams and soft drinks, etc, tea and coffee, sandwiches, cake and pie was served at moderate figures. The rest room also proved a great convenience to ladies and children.

The shot gun, donated by T. H. Saul, was won by A. Spence.

The dance in the I.O.F. hall was attended by a large and happy throng who continued dancing until early in the morning to the strains of the Edgerton orchestra, who received many claps and much applause for the music.

"Good roads are wanted because bad roads and mud holes help to make living high. They make it costlier to bring food products to market and the higher cost is paid by the consumer," says a city newspaper. Maybe it is correct, but after living in this district fourteen years, we entertained the idea, that we paid for the lack of road and that we must also pay for our roads. It is really hard for us to perceive how our friend consumer pays.

Chauvin Agricultural Society Column

Conserving Moisture

From the standpoint of crop production there are two types of farming in vogue in Central Alberta, dry farming in the districts where the rainfall is insufficient for all crop requirements and farming under a system where no particular attention is given to the conservation of moisture. In the dry areas where the rainfall is limited, it has been the experience of hundreds of farmers that summer-fallowing at regular intervals is essential in order to obtain the best results. The benefits of summerfallowing are many. The principal advantages derived first. A plentiful supply of available plant food and moisture which under ordinary conditions insure a good crop of grain the following year, and second the destruction of a large number of weeds. The method of obtaining these results as the experience of farmers in widely separated districts, and the results of experimental stations show, vary considerably. Methods that have proved quite successful in one district have given but poor results in others. This has been found to be due largely to the difference in the soils. In a given district the soil may be light and susceptible to blowing, while in another an entirely different factor may be the chief factor for consideration.

Most farmers agree, however, that in Central Alberta in those districts where summerfallowing is necessary, the land should be plowed some time between June 1st and June 20th, depending upon the conditions; and at a depth of from six to seven inches. Generally speaking six inches is known as summerfallow depth. The cultivation after plowing to keep down the weeds, however, varies considerably.

Plowing for summerfallow at depths of four, six, and eight inches have shown that a depth of about six inches is the most satisfactory for general conditions. The effects of fairly deep plowing have shown on the following years crop of wheat and on the second years crop of oats. Plowing for summerfallow in early June, cultivating until September, and re-plowing has given smaller yields than single plowing and thorough cultivation throughout the season. The growth of hay on the plots where were plowed twice has been much ranker and more inclined to lodge than when only one plowing was practiced. Sowing a crop of rape on summer fallow land which is pastured bit and disced thoroughly before seeding the next spring has reduced the yield of wheat on the plots where less than a similar plot ploughed once at the same depth and kept cultivated the remainder of the season. The value of the pasture taken from this land is not nearly sufficient to effect the loss in the yield of crops during the succeeding seasons.

Land for summerfallow has been ploughed on May 15th, June 15th, and July 15th, with distinctly better results, both as to crop and weed control, by ploughing either in May or June. July ploughing is decidedly too late for successful summerfallow treatment. By skin ploughing or double discing the land immediately after the crop is removed weeds seeds are germinated, moisture is held in the ground, and the crops of grain following the summerfallow treatment are materially heavier than where no fall cultivation is given.

The value of fall cultivation in controlling weeds cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. But is a factor which is not to be overlooked, since summerfallowing if done at all should be done thoroughly. It has been found advisable to use the packer on the land as soon as possible after ploughing since this firms the soil and prevents undue loss of moisture. If the soil is found to be exceptionally loose at any time the packer can again be used in firming it down. The duck foot cultivator is decidedly the most satisfactory implement to use on the summerfallow field. By using wide teeth on the weeds are cut and the soil left in a somewhat lumpy condition which prevents soil drifting. The drag harrow can be used when necessary with good results. The disc should not be used in summerfallow unless absolutely necessary to pulverize the soil. Particularly late in the season it is not advisable to use the disc harrow, since the soil is opened and loosened to such an extent that a great loss of moisture takes place.

In short then, the essentials of proper summerfallow treatment are late fall cultivation to conserve moisture and start weed growth, ploughing to a depth of at least six inches early in June making sure that all the weeds are covered, firm the land with a packer, and keep it black throughout the remainder of the season by using the duck-foot cultivator and drag harrow.

Not A Calamity

There are many folks, who are worrying a good deal just now, for fear that the present tightness in money will cause a collapse in real estate values and the country will receive a great setback thereby.

Worse fates could overtake us. The fundamental industry in this country is farming, and agriculture is not dependent upon high level land values. In fact, the business of profitable farming, is seriously handicapped when land values soar too far upward. If the price of land were to stop advancing now, it would not affect the land one iota. Neither would it lessen its productiveness nor spoil the prices for farm products. The land would still be in the hands of the people, just as it is now; only the mere appraisement would be affected. But there would be one or two other results. One of these would be that the thousands of men now engaged in the altogether unproductive task of juggling prices, making a fat living from land commissions, while performing no necessary productive labour, would be forced to put their hands to some useful task and earn their living by performing some really needed labor. The cost of living in Canada is very high—too high for most honest hard-working people who not only what they earn by the sweat of their faces. This high cost of living cannot help but be related to the hands of those who do not produce. It is a fundamental truth that when one man gets something for which he does not work, another man somewhere always works for something he does not get. There has been a great deal of that sort of thing in Western Canada of late years, and the sooner it comes to an end and the signs are pulled down from three-quarters of the real estate office doors, letting the occupants take up some really necessary work, the better.

SWAT THE FLY

Flies breed in filth, feed upon filth and carry disease. Flies may carry upon body and legs the germs of typhoid fever, tuberculosis, pneumonia and many other diseases.

Flies crawl over garbage, waste food, sewage and filth and go swimming in the gutter. These swarms of flies the next hour crawl over your cake, waste through your soup and take a bath in your milk; they eat and drink the dirt and germs that these impudent pests wash from their dirty feet.

A fly in the home is as much to be feared as a rattlesnake; the rattlesnake gives warning; the fly does his deadly work quietly.

Windows should be screened so that flies cannot enter the home and sow the seeds of disease and death.

Flies are enemies of babyhood and we should kill flies in order to help conserve human lives.

Premises should be kept clean so that flies will not find breeding places.

SIMULTANEOUS VOTE

Voicing on the prohibition question in Alberta and Saskatchewan will be held on October 25, while the dates for Ontario, Manitoba, Nova Scotia and the Yukon, all of which have asked for the plebiscite, have not yet been determined.

The government desires to have the referendum held in all the provinces on the same date in order to simplify the necessary work in connection therewith. The prohibition forces look on the matter differently, being desirous of having the vote taken on different dates. They feel that in this way a more favorable result would be obtained for their cause as a favorable decision in one province would react favorably on others.

The probability is, however, that with the exception of the Yukon, the votes will be taken simultaneously.

LADIES COLUMN

To take guess out of leather, apply white of eggs to the spot, and dry it in the sun. Repeat the application until all marks have disappeared.

An idea for padding-bag clothes is to cut a round of material, hem the edges, and run a piece of string through. Then the cloth need only be placed over the basin and the string drawn and tied as tightly under the rim as possible.

Cakes should not be left to cool in the tins in which they were baked, neither should they be placed flat on a solid surface to cool. Take them out of the tins and put them on a sieve, or tilt them up so that the steam can escape.

Mildew is an obnoxious discoloration but will yield if rubbed with lemon juice followed by salt, and exposure to the sun. For mildew on other material than linen a mixture consisting of two tablespoonsful of turpentine blended with the juice of a lemon, is recommended.

Clothes that have been packed away for any length of time often become very creased and shabby looking. To remove the creases, hang the articles in a clothesline in the bathroom and turn on the hot water tap until the room is full of steam. Leave them for an hour or two and then dry again in the open air and press on the wrong side with a rather cool iron.

Wet boots and shoes should never be placed near the fire as this renders the leather hard and brittle. After removing them from the feet wipe with a soft cloth to remove any surface water. Then place on trees and while still wet rub with a little kerosene oil. Put them in a warm place and allow to become partially dry, then give another rubbing with oil. Afterwards polish in the usual way.

Spirits of turpentine will remove most spots from silk, but care must be taken to see that the eye is first. It is as well to experiment first on a spare piece of the fabric. Pulling this powdered French chalk, mixed to a mustard like consistency with lavender water, should be rubbed into the stain left till caked, and a not iron—laid on a sheet of blotting paper—inally passed over lightly.

Old newspapers are invaluable in the kitchen. Spread one on the table when about to do anything that will make a litter. When finished wrap the paper up tightly with the contents and place in the fire or the rubbish box.

Edinglassie Notes

We are surely having very warm weather. The crops are looking splendid but a good heavy rain is needed.

Miss M. Trainor and Miss L. MacDonald, teachers of Rosos and Northern Crown schools, respectively, spent the week end here with their friend, Miss L. Brent.

Practically all the residents of this district attended the annual sports at Chauvin on July 7th. The weather was ideal and all report a good time.

Mr. David Hood who attended the Calgary exhibition has returned home again.

Mrs. W. D. Brent, who has been in Edmonton came back again.

On Monday evening, July 5th., we were visited here by Mr. H. A. Barton who addressed us on the prohibition referendum and also delivered some excellent readings. An executive was formed for the aid and preparation of of the coming election to be held on October 25th. The following are the list of officers: President Andrew Petrie; vice-president, Miss L. Brent; secretary Mrs. H. Bingham; treasurer, M. H. Bingham; committee, Messrs. H. Witt, S. Cunningham, N. Windrum, and W. Reinhardt.

Any who wish to secure literature to help them in securing votes for the victory of this very important campaign can secure same from the secretary or any member of this committee. All our combined ads are needed to make this an overwhelming victory.

ipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, and Edmonton. These arrangements are reciprocal inasmuch as passengers leaving Winnipeg holding tickets over to Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton or beyond may have their tickets honored on Canadian National trains, or vice-versa, for all or a portion of the route via junctional points.

The midnight lunch served by Mr. and Mrs. Nachtergaele was an excellent one, and much appreciated especially by the women folks in the booth, who having been there for a round of the clock were unanimously of the opinion if it hadn't been for the stimulus of Mrs. Nachtergaele's splendid coffee, they'd never have lived to get home.

Large numbers attended the Edgerton Sports last Wednesday, and all report having spent a good time. The weather was fine and the arrangements for the days doing reflected great credit upon the various committees.

The Jazz band was in attendance during the day. Another very interesting item was the parade of decorated cars, making a bright and attractive scene.

Weinwright came first in the baseball match and Chauvin second. Dole and Edgerton also competing. A dance was held at night, to which a large number were present. Good music and a good floor made for an happy day.

The Artland railway yards have worn an unusually busy look of late owing to the presence of a considerable outfit of some 30 or 40 men, engaged on the tracks between points to the east and Butte.

butlethan is generally to be noticed in Artland at this period of the season.

The executive of the Grain Growers Association at Regina, is furiously raging, the Grain exchange are rejoicing, and the farmers are faced with a further risk, in addition to those that Nature so liberally supplies, by the removal of the wheat control for this season's crop.

Great is the power of the lobbyist

Mr. Meighen should invest in a fine new broom, and see if he can't do something to those dusty lobbies of the Federal House!

It affords us great pleasure to note, that prospects are excellent in this district for an active and progressive campaign along the line of Sunday school work.

Recently a beginning was made at Brady and now it is gratifying to observe that Cliffe House school hold its first meeting on the 11th instant.

The satisfactory attendance of some twenty persons indicated an awakened interest, that we trust will be maintained and still further developed as time progresses.

A hopeful and interesting lesson was opened by the superintendent, Mr. Douglas Graham.

The meetings are to be held every Sunday at 2.30 p.m., and the committee will be glad if all those who were not present on the 11th instant, both children and adults, will come to the next meeting on the 26th instant. The question of Sunday Schools and their relation to the existing system of compulsory education, dating from the Foster Act of 1870, has often been furiously debated.

That exact position has never been fully recognized or properly studied, the Church itself even has been attacked on the ground of an apparent lukewarmness, allied to a seeming reluctance to boldly face and grapple with a situation arising out of an established system of state secular education.

Of recent years however, signs of an altered attitude have become more apparent.

And none too soon. Prevailing and more liberal views are broader.

For the Church to maintain a stullen attitude before the door of the secular school, a door that is for ever closed to it—is childish. To loyally supplement the work of the secular, with the efforts of the Sunday school, forms the key to the problem.

The impirance of the Sunday school, as such, is only now fully toward the supporters of a purely secular system of training the child, is spreading, there can be no doubt.

The increasing activities of various sections of the Church in the Sunday school branch of its work, affords clear evidence on this point.

We are not aware if the views we express coincide with those held by Mr. Wood, opportunity not having afforded us the pleasure of conversing with him.

But we are convinced that the Church does not philosophically accept the situation—the child will suffer.
